« The concept of this business convention is of an outstanding efficiency, not only due to the quantity of meetings made in record time, but also in terms of carbon footprint ... »

Pascal Common, director of Vinci Energies

They were there
in 2009 :

« Prepared beforehand, meetings were well targeted with receptive professionals, ready to listen and motivated by exchanges of ideas. We went straight to the essential in easier, more productive encounters. Certain contacts will enable us to multiply exchanges in the future »

Sylvain Grimaldi, Laurent Couasnon Design Office

« Thanks to ENR green we won 1 month of prospecting. »
Business Development of Cegelec Ouest.

« ENR green is an innovative and good quality concept which deserves to be renewed. He allowed us to initiate projects »
Emmanuel Pousset Managing Director of Solewa.

HOW DOES IT WORK ?

1 In a few minutes you fill in the on-line registration form with a description of your skills, technologies, fields of application; or of your requirements and projects.

2 Three weeks before the convention you will have access to all companies' presentation forms classified in an online catalogue. This enable you to select the companies you wish to meet.

3 Our team then plans your personalised schedule of meetings according to your selection and your availabilities. You can then consult your schedule online and prepare your meetings in advance.
